

Metamorphosis of a tourist and cultural center.
Source O Rama now hosts two new cultural spaces specially dedicated to children :
WaterHouse and ArtHouse

Source O Rama and its Water Route were inaugurated in 2005. After 12 years of activity, the Tourist Office of Chaudfontaine wanted to enhance the attractiveness of Source O Rama by optimizing the scenography of the Water Route while integrating into the building a space dedicated to the art of the twentieth century for children and families.

This ambitious project was made possible thanks to :

- Subsidies : General Commissariat for Tourism and Province of Liège
- the contribution of private partners : Loterie Nationale, Belfius, Coca-Cola, Ethias, Mithra et la CILE.

Public opening, July 6th, 2018.

More than 100,000 people have visited the "Source O Rama" water discovery center in recent years.

Today, this course of water, renovated, tightened is even more dynamic and fun. He becomes WaterHouse.

Water, this much so precious and so unknown property is the driving line of this exciting exhibition. WaterHouse answers all your questions through spaces where we discuss the water cycle, clouds, thunderstorms, formation of underground water, groundwater, know the amount of water on the earth, in our body, what is a molecule of water ...

We also reflects : are water resources inexhaustible? Are they well distributed between continents and between human beings? How much and how do we consume it? What are the sources of water pollution ...?

We also learn about the origin and benefits of Chaudfontaine water !

Finally, a spectacular trip in 4D makes us live the expedition of a drop of water, from the clouds to the bottle ... trip of some 60 years !

ARTHOUSE

Art House educates the public, families and children about modern art, through a permanent exhibition of original works by the greatest artists of the 20th century. These works are signed by artists such as : Toulouse-Lautrec, Degas, Picasso, Matisse, Warhol, César, Chagall, Miró, Folon, Braque, Magritte, Dali...

Art House brings together in one place and a single visit, the major stages of modern art : from the Impressionists to Andy Warhol's Pop Art, surrealism or abstract art.

These works come from private collectors who make them available to the Tourist Office for a long time.

Art House wants to sensitize, in particular the children, to the history of art, also through workshops and educational visits to make them little curious ones ...

What is modern art? What's the point? Is art beautiful? Why is it so important for some of us? Is it difficult to become an artist?

Art House wants to share the love of modern art to as many people as possible. It is the fruit of a decisive meeting between Laurent Burton, acting Mayor of Chaudfontaine, and Jean-Christophe Hubert, Art Historian and Curator of numerous exhibitions

Jean-Christophe HUBERT has designed and realized this project.
